AIP-100

Description:

The AIP/DIP Series Audio Interface Panels from BDI are the perfect solution for cleaning up wiring and reducing the reliance on traditional snake cables for neat and fast interface to modern audio equipment. Available in several styles:

DIP-100 Series— 110 Ohm AES3 XLR and/or 75 Ohm BNC I/O to DB25 connector

AIP-100 Series— Analog XLR I/O interface to DB25 Tascam™ Standard Pin Configuration

ADP/DAP Combination Series— Mix Digital and Analog I/O on a single panel

Designed to interface to all BDI Audio Toolbox Series products but can be used with other manufacturer's products conforming to the AES and Tascam™ standards. Provides a 1 RU interface for compact and neat installations. These high quality panels are made from gold contact XLR and DB25 connectors and a rugged steel rack panel. Each panel is supplied with the appropriate 3 ft./ 1 Meter DB25 Male/Female interface cable.
